Gallery Member News

- There are several members of the Norwich Arts Council Cooperative that have the distinction of also belonging to the recently formed organization Stonington Printmakers. So far this group has been warmly received in a large show last winter at the Slater Museum and a show at Cate Charles Gallery in Stonington Borough in March. The purpose of the organization is to collectively show printed works and educate our audience regarding printmaking techniques. Stonington Printmakers next show will be held at the The LaGrua Center in Stonington Borough in September. The opening is Friday, September 17th 5 to 7. The show will run until November 17. The gallery is located on Water St. NAC members included in this show are Carol Dunn, Rita Dawley, Gabe Lipman, Pam Nelson and Sadie Davidson DeVore. Check the website of the gallery or call to find out when our printmaking demonstrations will be held. Sadie Devore will be hosting a two demos, Sept 26 and Oct 24 from 10-1.
- Mark Patnode's painting "Winter at Mitchell Pond" has been accepted to the 30th Annual Faber Birren National Color Award Show. Samantha Rippner, Associate Curator, Metropolitan Museum of Art, NY, Juror
- Carol Dunn is in a juried exhibit "An Abstract Lens" thru Oct 3 at Silver Circle Studio in Putnam, and will be exhibiting at Glastonbury on the Green outdoor art show on September 11-12. She has a solo exhibit at Duncaster Lifecare Community Oct 3-28, and will be at the Scituate Art Festival Oct 9-11.
