Up to 3 works may be submitted. All works must be handmade by the artist. All mediums including fine craft will be accepted, EXCEPT photography (mixed media containing some photography is ok). All work must be current and not previously exhibited at the NAC Gallery. Work must be submitted wired and ready to hang (no clip frames, easel backs or saw tooth hangers). Work cannot exceed 48 inches in either direction. Sculpture must be easily transportable, and no more than 50 pounds. Although the NAC does have some pedestals, artists submitting 3D pieces are requested to provide pedestals. Jewelry should include a presentation case or display of some kind. No complicated installations. All work must be for sale, and no work may be removed for the duration of the show. While the utmost care will be taken in handling all works, The NAC, its directors and agents assume no liability for damage, loss or theft. All artists are responsible for insuring their own work. NAC reserves the right to exclude entries that are not in either the spirit of the exhibition or of a quality consistent with the exhibition's intent. Unclaimed works will be disposed of at the discretion of NAC. For works that cannot be picked up at the designated times, please call the gallery in advance (860-887-2789 or 2724). NAC reserves the right to publish photos of submitted works for use in publicity, including use on its web page. NAC retains 30% on all sales. The submission of works to the exhibition constitutes an agreement on the part of the artist to these conditions. Questions can be directed to Carol at 860-822-8412.
